Introduction

On or about June 8, 2012, the magistrate judge filed a Report and Recommendation to the district court recommending that the undersigned's CJA invoice in the above-captioned matter be cut by approximately 30 percent. See Document Number 1629 herein. The June 8, 2012 Report and Recommendation, filed late on a Friday afternoon, gave the undersigned until Monday, June 25, 2012 to file objections. The undersigned filed objections to the June 8, 2012 Report and Recommendation via the Court's ECF system on or about June 24, 2012 and dropped off courtesy copies of his objections with the district court and magistrate judge on June 25, 2012. See Document Number 1632 herein.

On or about June 26, 2012, the magistrate judge, claiming to have "carefully reviewed" the undersigned's objections, filed a Supplemental Report and Recommendation. See Document Number 1633 herein. The magistrate judge's Supplemental Report and Recommendation ignored all of the undersigned's objections, with the exception of the undersigned's notice to the district court and magistrate judge that, notwithstanding the Report and Recommendation's claim to the contrary, the undersigned was not retained herein, but was appointed to represent the defendant herein pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act. The Supplemental Report and Recommendation noticeably ignored the undersigned's objections to false, misleading and untrue factual assertions leveled in the June 8, 2012 Report and Recommendation for the apparent purpose of falsely making it appear that the undersigned had engaged in bill padding herein.

Objections to Supplemental Report and Recommendation

The undersigned hereby incorporates his June 24, 2012 objections contained in Document Number 1632 herein, with the exception of the undersigned's objection to the Report and Recommendation's claim that the undersigned was retained to represent the defendant herein, which was apparently corrected in the magistrate judge's Supplemental Report and Recommendation. While in no way limiting the objections leveled in his June 24, 2012 objections, the undersigned again objects to the false, misleading, and defamatory claims that the undersigned engaged in bill padding herein. These falsehoods were apparently included in the Report and Recommendation to mislead the reader with a false impression that the undersigned engaged in bill padding and unethical conduct. Any such suggestion is false.

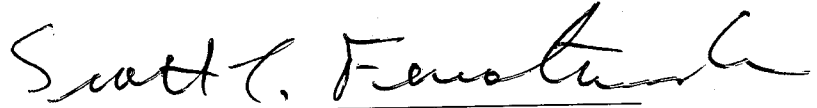

Conclusion

For the reasons stated in his June 24, 2012 objections, the undersigned objects to the Report and Recommendation and the Supplemental Report and Recommendation, with the exception of the one correction contained in the Supplemental Report and Recommendation.
